DAREDEVILS

Two dairies were engaged in an advertising war in a Western city. One of the companies engaged a daredevil racer to drive a car around the town with large placards, reading:

"This Daredevil Drinks Our Milk."

The rival company came out with large placards, twice as large, reading:

"You don't have to be a daredevil to drink our milk."

Social Security Violation Brings Prison Sentences To N. C. Couple

"Criminal violation of laws affecting entitlement to social security payments can result in imprisonment or heavy fines", William J. Vinson, District Manager of the Social Security Administration in Lynchburg, Va., warned today. Mr. Vinson called attention to the sentences imposed on the 22nd of April, 1964, in Salisbury, North Carolina, on Mr and Mrs. Ruth Benfield Honeycutt. Honeycutt was sentenced to serve four months in prison. Mrs. Honeycutt was sentenced to one year in prison but the sentence was suspended and she was placed on probation for five years. The couple pleaded guilty to giving false statements in connection with an application for monthly benefits filed on behalf of Lizzie Mae Benfield, Mrs. Honeycutt's stepmother, and to concealing the death of the stepmother who had been dead several weeks at the time the application was filed."

Mr. Vinson said the Social Security Administration had the duty of detecting any fraud that may exist at any stage of the claims operation and of recommending prosecution when the facts justify it. Mr. Vinson added that the majority of claims are free from fraud because procedures and procedures used by the Administration have been effective in keeping to a minimum the payment of benefits to those not entitled to them."
